Team Agreement:

Our team will work in a combined hybrid format involving in-person and remote communication. Team members are expected to be punctual, communicative, and open to input. Roles will be allocated and group members will take autonomous control of their roles. Tasks will be delegated and group members are responsible for the completion of their tasks. We will work as a team, helping each other when necessary to improve group performance, cohesion, and course deliverables. If a group member struggles to complete tasks and maintain the group performance, we encourage them to ask other group members for assistance.

Breach of Contract:

If a group member is causing consistent issues, severely impacting the performance of the team and the education of group members, action will be taken and may involve the inclusion of the professor or TAs.
